

Biography Yung Felix

Yung Felix is one of the first Dutch producers to come out with a trap only mixtape consisting of such featuring's as SLBMG and rappers Faberyayo, Sef and Spacekees. Felix started as an independent artist dropping a few tracks on his own, before starting to collaborate with Yellow Claw. The collaboration resulted into tracks like 'Jah no partial' (remix), 'No Flex Zone' (bootleg) and a video 'Dance Floor Champion'. Also, producing singles 'Doag' and 'Run It Back' for the successful Dutch rap formation Great Minds (Winne, Sticks and Jiggy Djé).

This year Felix teamed up with Aziz Wrijving and released 'Fas I Bobi' that took the top position on the Spotify Viral Top 50.

In 2014, Spacekees and Felix released the 'Held' EP, which resulted into their first international single 'Moneygrabber'. A song was presented by Yellow Claw's very own label 'Barong Family'.

Earlier this year Yung Felix, Spacekees and Tellem combined their talent and formed a new act 'Fountain Of Youth'. A renewed, electronic tropical sound was a result of their freshman 'Sunrise EP', released by Barong Family in early March.

With Mysteryland, Solar and the release of their second 'High Noon EP', Fountain Of Youth had an amazing summer. In November 2016 Yung Felix dropped his 'No Shirt Season' mixtape including lots of new tracks that will be released on Barong Family on his first solo EP in December.

YUNG FELIX

www.facebook.com/yungfelix

www.instagram.com/yungfelix

www.twitter.com/yungfelix

www.soundcloud.com/yung-felix